

Postgraduate (PG) Loans

Government loans are available to UK and eligible EU students for study at Master's and Doctoral levels.

How can I find more information?

Information regarding the Master's Loan can be found here and information regarding the Doctoral Loan is here. These links will tell you about the eligibility requirements for the loans and how much you can get, as well as how to apply.

What happens if I need to take time out from my Master's course?

These loans have different rules to undergraduate funding and it is generally not possible to obtain funding for repeat study. If you need to suspend and repeat a period of study, you are strongly advised to speak to a finance Adviser in The Advice Centre for further information as soon as possible.
