Annual General Meeting

The University of Southampton Students' Union will be holding our Annual General Meeting on Thursday 29 November 2018 from 14:00 onwards. We invite you to attend and help to shape your Students' Union.

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) and its activities will be held at the Café, Building 42, University Road, Southampton, SO17 1BJ.

You will be asked to consider as part of the AGM agenda, and if thought fit, to:

1. receive and approve the Impact Report,
2. receive and approve the Annual Accounts and Report of the Trustees for the year ending 31st July 2017,
3. approve the list of affiliations of the Union to external organisations,
4. appoint the auditors for the next academic year,
5. approve the authorisation of the political expenditure for the next academic year.

We will also be asking students to vote in a new structure for our Student and Sabbatical Officers. This has been created as part of the Union Review. More details and an opportunity to provide feedback can be found here.

Alongside this, our Full-Time Officers will be holding discussions on key topics for the year ahead. These discussions will include how we engage with Postgraduate Students, our Sustainability and how political we are as an organisation.

Voting online:

If you cannot attend the Annual General Meeting in person, you can register to vote online (by proxy) here
