Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting of the University of Southampton Students' Union will be held at 13:00 on Wednesday 17 May 2017 on the Red Brick, outside Building 42, University Road, Southampton, SO17 1BJ.

You will be asked to consider, and if thought fit, to:

1. receive and approve the Impact Report,
2. receive and approve the Annual Accounts and Report of the Trustees for the year ending 31st July 2016,
3. approve the list of affiliations of the Union to external organisations as included in the Annual Accounts,
4. appoint the auditors for the next academic year,
5. approve the authorisation of the political expenditure for the next academic year.

Election of the Chair of Senate for 2017/18 will be conducted within the Summer Elections period this year. The timescale of this has been provided below:

Nominations period: Monday 17 April to Thursday 4 May

Voting period: Monday 8 May to Friday 12 May

The AGM will be followed by an Open Senate meeting where students will discuss ideas that have been submitted through www.unionsouthampton.org/you-make-change and voted on. Ideas submissions and voting for Open Senate will take place from Wednesday 19 April through to Monday 15 May.

Voting online:

If you cannot attend the AGM in person, you can register to vote online (by proxy) at www.unionsouthampton.org/change.

Many thanks,

Alex Hovden
