

SUSU SAFETY BUS

TERMS OF SERVICE

Individuals must not enter the bus without prior permission from the driver, or security staff on the driver's behalf. Individuals are always expected to be courteous to staff running the safety bus service and other individuals using the service. Safety Bus drivers are also expected to be courteous to individuals using the service.

Refusal of service

Use of the Safety Bus service may be refused due to the following reasons:

- The bus is full and there is no capacity for further passengers
- The individual has been verbally or physically assaulting staff or students
- The individual is not a member of the Students' Union
- The individual is currently banned from the Students' Union
- The individual could be considered unsafe, e.g. is too intoxicated, and believed of being under the influence of an illegal substance
- The individual is using the service as a free taxi service rather than a means to get home. The Safety Bus will only drop members of the Students' Union at home addresses

The safety bus driver has final right of refusal in all circumstances

Additional Conditions

- No food or drink can be consumed whilst on the bus
- It is against the law to smoke on the bus
- Passengers must not distract the driver or open doors whilst the vehicle is in motion
- It is a legal requirement to wear a seat belt, and only 1 person may use each seat belt at a time

The Students' Union reserves the right to impose an immediate £25 fine for people vomiting or causing damage to on the bus to cover cleaning costs. Failure to pay the fine when imposed will result in being referred to our disciplinary policy, and a ban from using the service may be imposed.

The Students' Union reserves the right to refuse access to the bus at any time and will remove any student from the bus if they contravene this policy. Any individual who is considered to be putting the safety of other passengers, or the driver, at risk, will be removed as soon as possible and police involvement may pursue. Breaching this policy may result in the individual being referred to our disciplinary policy, and a ban from using the service may be imposed.
