

About volunteering with SUSU:

Faculty Officers are the senior reps in their faculty, take overall responsibility for academic representation, and report to the Union's Vice President Education and Democracy. They lead and manage their Department and School Presidents and are responsible for ensuring consistent and strong representation. They meet regularly with the Associate Dean (Education) for their faculty and sit on Faculty Education and Student Experience Subcommittee meetings.

Faculty Officers focus on representing students' academic interests. You will be a part of the Union which makes changes to benefit students.

In order to apply for the role, you must be a student in that faculty. When applying for this role you are confirming that you meet the eligibility criteria for the role.

We provide full training at the beginning of the year as well as advice and support as you continue in your role. You will gain a wealth of experience through your voluntary role with SUSU, experience that you can use to improve your future employability while receiving recognition for the work you accomplish.

Main purpose of the role:

- 1) To act as the lead representative for your faculty.
- 2) To facilitate a positive relationship between university and student representatives.
- 3) To encourage participation in university-wide initiatives aimed at enriching the student experience.

Main responsibilities of the role:

To act as the lead representative for your faculty

- To lead and provide the main point of contact for all the School and Department Presidents within your faculty.
- To obtain student feedback on a range of issues relating to academic experience.
- To report on any changes and improvements to the student body and VP Education and Democracy.

To facilitate a positive relationship between university and student representatives

- To sit on Faculty Education and Student Experience Subcommittee meetings.
- To regularly review student feedback alongside the University and identify areas for improvement.

To encourage participation in university-wide initiatives aimed at enriching the student experience.

- To meet regularly with other Academic Representatives to plan and share ideas.
- To participate in University-wide consultation pieces.

Where can you find guidance?

- Representation Team: representation@soton.ac.uk

How to nominate for the role:

In order to stand as a candidate, you will need to submit a short statement letting everyone know why they should vote for you. You don't need to have any previous experience so simply focus on what you will achieve if elected.

Log in to our website at www.susu.org/elections and fill out the nominations form. There is no need to create a new account, just use your University credentials.

For any queries about the election, please contact us at representation@soton.ac.uk.

Time Commitment and Expectations:

There will be times throughout the year where you may be called on to help promote and spread awareness for SUSU campaigns. There will be key meetings that you must attend and you must attend relevant SUSU meetings.

If at any point you find that you are struggling to balance voluntary work with your studies we understand that your degree must come first. Please, come and speak to us and we will always try our best to make things easier.

Term of office: 1st July – 30th June

Our Values

As an organisation, our values underpin our work and guide what we live by in order to achieve our mission:

Stand Strong

We stand up for students and make sure their voices are heard.

We stand strong when facing challenges and are not afraid to be different. We think big and work to achieve great things.

Join Together

We are an inclusive and diverse community of students and staff.

We join together with each other, the University, and the local community to make a positive difference.

Take Responsibility

We take action on the issues that matter to students and act with integrity.

We continually work to be more sustainable, challenging discrimination and prejudice. We strive to be a force for good for students and wider society.
